

The Raffle

Raffle tickets are inside the balloons?

Prizes are not guaranteed?

But a bear (or two) could be yours by the end of the evening!

And there is a twist...

To get to the raffle tickets you'll need to 'buy' your shots.

3 arrows for £1.50 – if you are wearing a RED NOSE, then it's £1.00 for 3 arrows. (no restrictions on how many sets of arrows you buy...)

Not every balloon has a raffle ticket in it.

And the twist is?

If you prefer the bear won by someone else, you could make them an offer – which of course, also goes in to the RND 2009 pot.
